About AALNA

The American Assisted Living Nurses Association is the only national non-profit association dedicated exclusively to nursing in assisted living. Operated by nurses, for nurses.

MISSION

Promote nursing practice by enhancing the competencies of nurses working with in the unique Assisted Living environment.

VISION

It is the vision of the American Assisted Living Nurses Association that we:

Influence stakeholders who could potentially impact nursing practice within the Assisted Living environment.

GOALS

The goals of the American Assisted Living Nurses Association are:

1. Enhance the competence of nurses working in Assisted Living by providing education research and evidence based best practices.
2. Provide certification exam that prepares and distinguishes nurses in current Assisted Living knowledge and practice.
3. Encourage Assisted Living community leadership to support their nurses' participation with AALNA.
4. Provide access to a nation-wide network of Assisted Living nurses through web-based technology state leadership and local chapters.
5. Influence stakeholders and public policy that may impact Assisted Living nursing practice.

AALNA is led by a diverse group of experienced assisted living nurses from across the United States:
