About AALNA

The American Assisted Living Nurse Association is the only national non-profit association dedicated exclusively to nursing in assisted living. Operated by nurses, for nurses.

MISSION
To promote effective nursing practice in assisted living such that nurses as well as residents benefit.

VISION
It is the vision of the American Assisted Living Nurses Association that:

• Assisted living nurses practice within a holistic framework that can maximize and maintain the assisted living resident's well-being and pursuit of quality of life.

• The American Assisted Living Nurses Association be recognized as a national specialty practice nursing organization.

GOALS
The goals of the American Assisted Living Nurses Association are:

• To promote professional growth of assisted living nurses through education, research, and participation in public policy forums.

• To provide access to a nation-wide network of assisted living nurses.

• To promote an active interest in assisted living nursing practice among professionals.

• To improve information dissemination on current state specific regulatory requirements and cost-effective methods for exemplary compliance.

• To share evidence-based best practices and other insights with assisted living nurses and the public.

• To develop and maintain credentials for specialty practice that include a certification examination.

AALNA is lead by a diverse group of experienced assisted living nurses from across the United States:
